

CLAIMS

What I claim as my invention is:

A cleaning device for paint brushes, rollers and pad applicators comprising:

1. A two sided base, each side has a scrub board consisting of a multitude of notches.

2. Has the shape of conventional paint brushes with a semicircular cutout, which conforms to the shape of paint rollers.

3. The size can vary and can be made from a variety of materials wood, plastic, or metal.